suffragette campaign was reached a few hours before. But the candidate when an enormous mob hemmed in said that he had promised to speak parliament and stopped traffic in all streets leading to Westminster. For more than three hours the crowds scuffled good naturedly with the police, interfered with theatergoers, broke windows and disorganized things generally in the center of London.

The heroine of the day was Mrs. Travers Symons, formerly secretary to James Keir Hardie, the Socialist and Independent member of parliament, who reached the door of the house of commons by strategy. The house was solemnly debating a bill to prevent children from cigarette smoking, when the woman dashed past the doorkeeper to a position in front of the speaker's chair and shouted shrilly: "Leave off discussing children and talk about women."

Three officials seized Mrs. Symons and carried her out bodily. She was led to the outer door and dismissed. As a result of the coup an order was issued that hereafter women shall not be admitted to the building on any pretext whatever, and in the future the historic grille will not screen feminine spectators.

Parliament in State of Siege.

Parliament was in a state of siege. A close triple line of police was drawn around the three sides of the square in front of the building. The yard in front of the gates swarmed with people, and 200 guarded the gates in the rear against assault by water, which the women twice attempted. A small deet of police boats also patrolled the BRYAN MAKING A

All the mounted police in London and suburbs had been mobilized at this center and loads of hay were unstacked in the streets for the horses. The whole police force, together with cavalry, infantry and marines, numbering more than 5,000, was kept busy in restraining the pushing, struggling masses, especially about Trafalgar Square, where the Nelson monument looked down upon dense crowds in all directions, with buses, motor cars and cabs, mostly filled with sightseers, trying to thread their way through.

The police kept the streets adjoining the house of commons clear; elsewhere they endeavored to the best of their ability to keep the people moving. The crowds cheered, sang songs and hooted, giving voice to all the sarcastic remarks that a London crowd is capable of. These were aimed in a semi-good natured manner at the suffragettes, who. distinguished by their orange sashes, swarmed everywhere, distributing tracts. A delegation of thirteen suffrarettes, which approached the police cordon and was formally refused admission to parliament, attempted a football rush, but the police chivalrously repulsed the women with the least possible roughness. Two bodies of the unemployed, however, which approached the line, were driven off with little saving grace. The police were pelted with vegetables and some stones in a few minor skirmishes that occurred, but nobody was seriously hurt. Twenty-four suffragettes and twelve of the unemployed were placed under arrest. Many persons fainted in the crush; a few were trampled upon and taken to the hospitals.

TOUR OF NEBRASKA

ing in His Own State.

Wahoo, Neb., Oct. 14.-Accompanied by all the Democratic candidates for state offices, with the exception of one or two, William J. Bryan campaigned in his own state, and at this place completed the first of his three-days' Nebraska tour. Big crowds greeted him at every point, and when his days' work was over he had delivered twenty-one speeches, varying in length from five minutes to an hour. His arguments were confined mostly to anewering the statements of Mr. Taft and Governor Hughes, who but recently visited Nebraska. The audiences were mostly farmers and the Democratic candidate frequently moved them to loud applause. The route traversed was through numerous Republican strongholds. A carload of speakers was brought along out of Omaha and at each place visited by Mr. Bryan one was dropped off to complete the work of expounding Democratic doctrines. Mr. Bryan accused Mr. Taft of not making the speech in Nebraska that he had been making in other parts of the country.

"He did not discuss the guarantee of bank deposits," he said, "doubtless because he was informed that the people of Nebraska are in favor of the guaranteeing of deposits. Following so closely on the dramatic experience of A. Holland Forbes and Augustus Post, the navigators of the Conqueror, which burst at an altitude of 4,000 feet soon after the start of the race, both men having a thrilling escape from death, the disaster to the Saint Louis was the subject of excited interest in Berlin.

Captain J. C. McCoy, the commander of the American balloon America II., which landed Tuesday, has reached Berlin. He gave an interesting account of his journey in the air. The duration of his balloon's flight was 22 hours and 7 minutes. Three of the balloons in the inter-

SENSATIONAL DISCLOSURES

Made Before the Grand Jury in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Oct. 14.—This city is on the eve of a sensational shaking up of municipal affairs that is expected to bring to light conditions of an appalling nature, implicating men high in political, business and social life.

So grave are the charges against these men and so convincing the testimony against them by men of undoubted probity and unblemished reputation that after a thorough investigathe attention of the grand jury, now

It is expected that interesting developments will follow within a few

Conditions involved in the charges relate to the social evil and the saloons. The investigation was brought about by the energetic work of a man whose home life was destroyed owing to the alleged existence in the city of low dens, veritable traps for the unwary, one of which was the means of ruining his daughter, a girl less than seventeen years of age.

Many witnesses have already appeared before the grand jury and have made affidavits that are said to be amazing. What these documents contain will not be definitely known for some time.

Woman Dies of Lockjaw.

Belvidere, N. J., Oct. 14.-Mrs. Arthur Walters, twenty-five years old, died here of lockjaw. Last Saturday she had fourteen teeth drawn. The next day she became quite ill and it was thought this condition was due to the anesthetic she took when the dentist operated upon her. Unmistakable rigns of tetanus later developed and the woman suffered frightful agony efore she died.

IMMUNITY OF RAILROADS.

Discussed by Attorneys in the Standard Oil Case.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Questions asked in cross-examination of Henry E. Felton, general traffic manager of the Standard Oil company, by Frank B. Kellogg, government attorney, in the hearing of the railroad phase of the government suit to dissolve the Standard Oil company, brought on a colloguy between counsel for the oil company and the government on the subject of immunity to railroads.

The primary question propounded to Mr. Felton concerned a 12-cent rate between Whiting, Ind., and Toledo, and an 11-cent rate from Whiting to Cincinnati. In this connection Mr. Felton declared that the road out f Chicago under pressure from the bureau of corporations put in an illegal rate to Toledo.

Attorney Kellogg asked, "did all the railroads pull out these rates to East St. Louis, to Evansville, to Grand Junction, the rates from Chicago to Toledo, because they were afraid of the bureau of corporations?"

Mr. Rosenthal, counsel for the Standard, interposed, "I think all of the railroads that were granted immunity against criminal prosecution by private arrangement with the government which was undisclosed probably "Will you answer the question?" continued Mr. Kellogg, addressing Mr.

"I don't know of a railroad that was indicted," commented Mr. Rosenthal, while Mr. Felton replied that he could not answer the question, and Mr. Rosenthal continued:

"And the records in the various cases show that they were granted immunity. What they did under the pressure of that grant of immunity we do not altogether know."

Mr. Kellogg then said "the more of that sort of talk you put in the reccrds, Mr. Rosenthal, the worse it will be for you."

Detroit, Oct. 14.-Chicago crept one game closer to the world's baseball championship by defeating Detroit in the fourth game of the series, 3 to 0. Chicago has now won three games of the series as compared with one annexed by Detroit at Chicago Monday. "Eddie" Summers, Detroit, and "Mintion the matter has been brought to er" Brown, the premier pitcher of the Chicago team, opposed each other and the latter had all the better of the argument, although Summers pitched excellent ball in all but one inning. In the third Summers passed two men on balls, some of which to crowd seemed to be very like strikes. He was corners in whirlwind fashthe and an inch either would change the umpire's verdict Chicago got two men on bases in the first and one in the second without the situation, however, growing precarlous. In the third, after Sheckard and Evers, as a result of the sprightly efforts of Messrs. Coughlin and Schaefed, had been retired, Summers wavered ever so little, and Schulte was presented with standing room on the initial bag. The Chicago right fielder promptly concluded to try out Schmidt's throwing arm. Said arm was tried and found wanting. Schmidt's unsuccessful throw to second was the first of four similar failures. Chance, the next man up, was also allowed to walk, despite the strenuous objections of the Detroit battery, to say nothing of the crowd. Chicago's next and final run occurred in the ninth inning, when Winter took Summers' place in the pitching box. The change in "seasons" made no difference with the Chicagos. With two out, Evens singled to left and stole second, coming home on Chance's single to right.

Detroit threatened to score only once. In the fourth inning Brown found himself in a pretty tight hole when singles by O'Leary and Crawford placed those gentlemen respectively on second and first bases with none out. Cobb, the Detroit right fielder, came to bat and bunted. The caught napping by Kling. Rossman struck out, spoiling Detroit's only chance to score.

Light For Mr. Bryan.

William Jennings Bryan in the course of a speech in Baltimore Sept. at the meeting of the Presbyterian 14 complained that Mr. Taft is "run-Synod which meets in that city tomor- ning upon a platform which gives the public no definite idea as to what he (Mr. Taft) stands for." In this statement the smug demagogue again insistently assumes that the people are as ignorant as himself and as indifferent to political history as he would like them to be. The people, however, know exactly what Mr. Taft stands for, and their knowledge is full of light for Mr. Bryan.

Taft stands for Republicanism and progress as against Bryanism and anarchy. The Republicanism of Taft is a pledge of peace. The Democracy of Bryan is a threat of strife.

Taft stands for a protective tariff and high wages, while Bryan stands Hitch will sell you fuel and deliver it for free trade and low wages. Under Republican administration American labor has received the histest wages ever paid anywhere in the world. Under Democratic administration American labor had to compete not only with the free trade labor of Europe, but with the slave labor of the United Taft stands for an honest dollar, based upon the gold standard, while Bryan stands for a dishonest dollar. debased by the free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1. Taft represents those who upheld the national credit in 1896 and 1900, when Bryan and his followers desperately sought to destroy it.

Taft stands for the principle that labor and capital have common interests and should be harmonized. Bryan contends that they are natural enemies and should be perpetually at war. Taft teaches the gospel of hope to American industry. Bryan is the prophet of evil to the wage earner.

Taft stands for the idea that American expansion is an expression of national strength. Bryan denounces it as a sign of national weakness. Republicanism would have the stars and stripes known and respected in every part of the world. Bryan would offer an apology for the American flag wherever it is seen beyond the continental limits of the United States.

Taft stands for the integrity of laws as interpreted by the courts. Bryan would nullify objectionable statutes by the declaration of party conventions. Republicanism insists upon resolutely maintaining the independence of each of the three co-ordinate branches of government. Bryanism would destroy their even balance by imposing arbitrary restrictions upon the powers of the judiciary.

Mr. Bryan may deceive himself into the notion that the public doesn't know what Mr. Taft stands for, but he cannot deceive anybody else. The people know exactly Mr. Taft's attitude upon every issue in the campaign. His record and his party's record meet square edge at every point without a shade of evasion, equivocation or dodging. The people know, too, what Bryan stands for. Briefly stated, it is anything to win.

We Want No Free Trade.

Mr. Bryan's only delusion which he has clung to through thick and thinfree trade-is not getting the attention it deserves. It's the only child by former political marriages that the Democratic candidate acknowledges this year, and even it is such a disreputable little brat that the "peerless one" would like to disown it in certain parts of the country. But here Mr. Bryan's record clings to him, and here the Democratic platform haunts him. The Nebraskan has even gone further than many of his associates in declaring for free trade. He advocated and voted for the Wilson bill only because it was "a step in the right direction." He would let down the tariff bars so as to allow unlimited imports and close every factory in the country and make every farm unprofitable. He does not say so in any state, but his record is on file, his statements are on record, and he must be measured by his words and deeds. He helped frame the only law approaching free trade which has been in force since the Republican party came into power. He would sign such another bill if he could and a worse one if he had his way.

We want no free trade president for the United States. We want no free trade tariff. Taft and Sherman and a Republican house in the Sixty-first congress mean continued protection and renewed prosperity and progress.

Democrats complain that the number of officials has increased with the growth of public business. Yet they would increase the burdens and the inquisitions of the government by adding to them the franchising of all private business.

The Republican administration is not posting Mark Twain notices on the door of the treasury telling the Democracy how to help itself to the people's money within.

Bryan is the champion candidate for getting the receptions of curiosity and failing to win the votes of approval.

Mr. Rockefeller in these gingery lays finds placidity in reminiscence.

RECEPTION TO BE THIS EVENING

Residence of Alderman Turcotte to be the Scene of Double Reception

At the parish residence of Rev. Father O'Mahoney, at 9:30 this forenoon occurred the marriage of Mary Rosealla Turcotte, daughter of Aiderman H. Turcotte, and Arthur Eugene Hardy, of Minneapolis. At 10 o'clock at St. Francis Catholic church, Mary Calphurna Waite daughter of Parker Waite, became the bride of Fremond trip. Harmidas Turcotte. Both brides wore handsome gowns of cream silk poplin and carried white roses. Miss Georgie Armstrong was bridesmaid at both ceremonies and was gowned in tan net. She carried carnations. #### Harmless and Tastes Like Candy Though Rids You of Your Stomach Troubles

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble, why don't you keep a case of Diapepsin in the house handy?

This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and regulate a sour stomach five minutes after.

Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will readily see why they cure indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn and prevent at once such miseries as belching of gas, eructations of sour undigested food, nausea, headaches, dizziness, constipation and other stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from indigestion with the common every-day cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else wrong, or believe theirs is a case of nervousness, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach or cancer.

This is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest: instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, gas and stomach poison, which will putrefy in the entire digestive tract and intestines, and, besides poison the breath with nauseous odors.

A hearty appetite with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Diapepsin
